

Nordstrom to Appear as Special Guest Performer on FOX 13 Television's "Good Day Tampa Bay"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Tampa, Florida

Violin virtuoso Eric C. Nordstrom has been invited to appear on WTVT FOX 13's popular, all local morning news block "Good Day Tampa Bay". Featuring his haunting romantic melodies, Nordstrom will be serenading the show's hosts Tom Curran and Anne Dwyer as they explore keeping the sparks alive for couples as they "Spice Up Your Love Life" with National Date Night. The show airs live Monday, September 12, 2005 at 8 a.m.

A native of New England, Nordstrom has been a freelance violinist/electric violinist in the Tampa Bay area since 1999. He is an alumnus of the Interlochen Arts Academy and Mainz Konservatorium (Germany) and a graduate of Oberlin College and Conservatory, where he received degrees in Violin Performance and Biology. The latter interest led to a one year position as a research assistant in the Molecular Biology Department at Brown University as well as five years as a member of the Science and Technology faculty at Tampa's prestigious Berkeley Preparatory School. Nordstrom saw his first professional work as a member of the critically acclaimed chamber group Kammerorchester Betzdorf (Cologne, Germany), and has performed with the New Bedford Symphony, the Rhode Island Philharmonic, the Chamber Orchestra of Florida, Florida Pro Musica, The Orlando Symphony, The Southwest Florida Symphony, the Opera Tampa Orchestra, and is a regular per service player with The Florida Orchestra. In addition, he serves as the regular concertmaster and violin soloist for the Mostly Pops Orchestra. Nordstrom has performed with national touring companies for Les Miserables, The King and I, Guys and Dolls, West Side Story, The Mikado, and H.M.S. Pinafore, in addition to dozens of other local show credits. Nordstrom has recorded for several record labels, and can be heard on the Jon Secada's latest album in addition to the soundtrack to "Katonga", Busch Gardens' most recent multi-million dollar Broadway-style show.
